

Nebraska Irrigated Seeds

Nebraska Irrigated Seeds is family owned and operated company founded in the mid 1930's. NIS is a large independent seed corn and soybean seed producer in the Midwestern corn belt. NIS offers the full spectrum of seed production including producing, processing, manufacturing, shipping and distribution of corn and soy products through custom-contracts in industry leading facilities complete with logistics planning and climate controlled warehousing of all row crops.

Adam Monke
President, CEO
amonke@niseeds.com

402-720-6078

niseeds.com

10989 8th Street
Fontanelle, NE 68044

Markets: United States,
Canada, Mexico

Products Offered

- Corn Seed
- Soybean Seed

Nebraska Irrigated Seeds provides the best quality seed by utilizing the most advanced equipment and technology in the seed industry. Our seed fields are contracted with highly experienced growers over a large portion of eastern Nebraska to minimize loss during extreme weather events. With our ability to provide a large area of growing options, we are able to accommodate today's strict isolation requirements for the purest seed possible.

